Some people fancy it is a sort of good will, or benevolence, with which God regards the just, but this is a mistake and we learn what grace really is from the Catechism, which says that grace is a supernatural gift of God, freely bestowed upon us for our sanctification and salvation. Grace is a supernatural gift of God-being supernatural it is far more precious than all gifts and privileges in the natural order. It is the outcome of God's supernatural love of men, infinitely surpassing all the benefits conferred upon us in our creation. It is infused into our souls, and is not mere benevolence on the part of God. We might indeed call any gift of God's a grace or favor, but we are speaking now of the grace which...
