H., And Its Presbyterian Church and Society (Founded April, 1719), Delivered Sabbath, July 2d, 1876 The past has always been commemorated among men - by pillars, monuments, temples, or by festival, tradition or history. It is natural, it is needful, it is commanded Remember the days of old Ask thy father thy elders. And again, For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is or hath been heard like it. Two points of inquiry are specified in the words that follow. One of them is, Hath God assayed to go and take Him a nation from the midst of another nation as He did for you The object of the inquiry is declared in the injunction - Know therefore this day and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord he is God, in Heaven above, and upon the earth beneath. Thus the sphere of inquiry is extended over all time, and with the design to perpetuate the knowledge, and a heartfelt remembrance of God, and of his sovereignty in providence: and the civil and religious landmarks of all ages are among the designated guides to that knowledge. As rivers are formed by the union of lesser streams, and these by many rills and fountains, so nations and their institutions have their remote and immediate sources.
