

Greg: A Liver Transplant Recipient

By Jr. Gregory Gaines

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 122 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Greg: A Liver Transplant Recipient is an intimate look into the life of my family and myself. It covers the struggles of a child who was burdened with medical difficulties following birth. The Gaines family has been on both sides of organ transplantation, dealing with their first child needing a transplant and then choosing to donate the organs of their second, now deceased, child. Knowing that every family, just like every human-being, is imperfect, we have all managed to not only stick together but to stay happy. Regardless of how many times we have smiled, there were times when I thought that my life was never going to get any better. I m sure that my parents have felt the same way many times over again but before I could live up to my nickname, they were my Rock. We have cried many tears and I have struggled for many years but God was always right there beside us. Every time I started feeling sorry for myself, somebody would say a prayer and things would always start...
