Love Songs of Kabir

By G.N. Das

Full Circle, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Kabir, the illiterate jolaha poet who flourished in the 15th century in our ancient land, sang hundreds of spiritual songs and couplets effortlessly. The first authentic record of some of these songs of great spiritual and poetic excellence is to be found in the holy Guru Granth Saheb of the Sikhs. Of these, a large number portray the love games between the Soul of man and the soul of the supreme. Kabir was firmly of the conviction that God, or in other words salvation, can be attained by the way of love. Kabir is now widely read by people in this country and abroad. For the first time, one hundred and one love songs of Kabir are presented in free-verse in simple and lucid english. The author, a retired IAS bureaucrat, is an expert on Kabir. After retirement he has engaged himself in the study of his life and philosophy and produced numerous books on the saint poet of India.
