THE MYSTERIES OF REVEREND DEAN

Lighthouse Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The young man lowered his voice, but sounded all the more intense for doing so. Reverend, he said solemnly, if God didn't do it, then it doesn't make any logical sense. Oh, it makes perfect sense, the reverend replied. It makes perfect, horrible sense. * * * The Reverend Thaddeus Dean has just retired as pastor of a small church at the foot of the Cascade Mountains. He is lonely, poor and desperately misses his wife who died years ago. Fortunately, he has a pastime. He solves murders that are so bizarre as to seem impossible. In each of the stories collected in this volume, Reverend Dean is challenged by a seemingly impossible crime. In one story, a pastor dies in front of his congregation when God appears in church and predicts his death. In another tale, three siblings are murdered - one on a sandy beach, one surrounded by wet paint and one in the middle of a mudflat - with no footprints near any of the bodies. In a third story, a woman is stabbed in her triple-locked, upper floor apartment - although she is protected by a guard dog, and three witnesses insist that no one entered or left her unit. But those are only half the stories. Reverend Dean also investigates a suspicious suicide on a Caribbean cruise, a body that appears out of thin air in a locked garage, and a murderous shooter who disappears from an apartment surrounded by the police. Readers won't just have to guess who the criminals are, they'll have to guess how they committed their crimes. Harking back to the stories of John...
