Excerpt: . . . appropriate protective clothing and equipment whenever a hazard evaluation of the workplace has identified that skin or eye contact with Cr (VI) presents or is likely to present a hazard to workers. Where such a hazard is identified, the employer must select the clothing and equipment needed to protect workers from Cr (VI) hazards. Some examples of protective clothing and equipment that may be necessary include, but are not limited to, gloves, aprons, coveralls, foot coverings and goggles. Normal street clothing and uniforms or other accessories that do not protect workers from Cr (VI) hazards are not considered protective clothing or equipment under the standard. Employers must provide and maintain the clothing and equipment at no cost to the worker. The following precautions must be taken to protect workers and others who handle protective clothing and equipment: The employer must ensure that workers remove protective clothing and equipment that has become...
